Internship with Infrastructure and Debt Advisory Group in PwC St. Petersburg

pwc

We are happy to announce the opening of Internship with Infrastructure and Debt Advisory (I&D) Group in PwC St. Petersburg for those who are interested in Public-Private Partnerships, project financing, marketing research and financial modeling.

Services provided by department:

- Structuring of financing solutions for corporates and projects on a non-recourse basis;
- Advising public sector clients on the procurement of projects using PPP schemes and bidders interested to participate or invest;
- Analysis, development and preparation of socio-economic / feasibility studies and business plans for projects in the private and public sector;
- Financial modelling of developed financing structures;
- Presentation of financing proposals to investors (equity and debt) and guarantors; negotiation of terms;
- Managing the finance raising process.

Successful Candidate Profile:

- Undergraduates in Economics, Finance, Mathematics, Sciences or Engineering; additional/second education related to valuation is an advantage;
- Comprehensive theoretical and working knowledge of corporate finance / valuation theory, knowledge of general accounting principles;
- Practical experience in report writing and the preparation of electronic presentations using MS Applications;
- Practical knowledge of MS Excel and the ability to structure and build financial models / business plans;
- Strong research and analytical skills;
- Ability to work full time;
- English – advanced/upper-intermediate (both oral and written);
- Financial internship experience as plus.

Soft skills:

- Ability to operate in multitasking environment;
- Ability to meet deadlines;
- Attention to details;
- Excellent communication skills.